OBITUARY

Mrs. Aletha Williams was born in Emanuel County, Georgia, to the late Mr. Salis Curry and Mrs. Polly Phillips Brownlee Curry on December 9, 1917. She attended public school at New Hope in Register, Georgia. She later moved to Metter, Georgia, at an early age where she resided until her passing on Saturday, April 30, 2005.

Mrs. Williams became a dedicated, baptized Witness of Jehovah on September 30, 1961, and a Pioneer in 1964. She was a member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Metter until her passing. She was married to Mr. Walter "Son" Royals, who preceded her in death. In 1955 she married James Williams, who also preceded her in death. She was the oldest sister of the late Buford Curry, Annie Mae White and Minnie McClendon.

She is survived by two daughters and one son-in-law, Reta Mae Ellis (Elmore) and Lila Williams Rawls all of Metter, GA; one brother, Kenny Curry of Paterson, NJ; one sister, Sylvarie Frierson of Princeton, NJ; five grandchildren, Darla Ellis, Heather Ellis, Jeremy Rawls, and Salis Rawls all of Metter, GA, and Tarshell Ellis of Miami, FL; seven great-grandchildren, Nakeitha Murphy of Miami, FL, Clinton Murphy, A'Maury Ellis, Armani Ellis, Jaeden Bell and Nekevia Carter all of Metter, GA, and Avanesia Lumdsom of Miami, FL; one great great grandchild, Maura Kelly of Miami, FL; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and the congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Closing PrayerBrother James McCray

He "Jehovah" will wipe out every tear from their eye and death will be no more. Neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

In Appreciation

Just when friends are needed, you find them near, just when shadows darken, their comforting words you hear. The family acknowledges with deep appreciation the expressions of love, affection, prayers, kind words, deeds and good wishes extended to us during our time of bereavement.
